Saturday, June 10. 1727.

Madrid, May 27.

THE last Lettels from Ceuta relate, that the Moors had lately sent into their former Camp before that Place two Spies, one whereof was killed by the Spaniards for making Resistance, and the other brought into that City, by whom they were informed, that the late King of Morocco Muley Ismael had left his vast Treasures to Muley Hamet, the most beloved of his Sons, and that he had ordered he should be proclaimed King after his Decease; that that Prince being universally hated and despised on account of his Cruelties and Drunkenness, could not hitherto get Possession of the Throne; that the Crown was disputed by two of his Brothers, who were advancing towards Mequinez at the Head of the best Troops of the Kingdom, and that it was thought the youngest of them, who is generally esteemed, would be proclaimed King. To which this Prisoner adds, that the Son of the Alcade Ali, who commanded at the Siege of Ceuta, had retired with his Troops towards Tangier, to declare himself for that Party which should get the better. Sig. Andrew Erizzo, the new Venetian Ambassadour, arrived here some Days ago, and Sig. Zacharia Canale, whom he relieves, is gone for his Embassy to the Court of France. The King, who has been indisposed for Three Days together is now perfectly recovered since he has taken Physick. The Spanish Men of War which for some Time lay ready to sail in the Bay of Cadiz, have retired behind the Puntals, upon the Approach of the 12 English Men of War which cruized before the Bay. 'Tis said that Six Men of War are sailed from Corrunna, which are not to open their Orders till they are at Sea. Six Battallions have been embarked at Barcelona for the Camp before Gibraltar, and they expect at Valencia Four Battallions more to be likewise transported thither. They write from Gibraltar of the 17th, that Part of the Guns upon the new Batteries are grown useless, being made of bad Stuff, and bursted about the Touch-hole. That our Camp diminishes apace by the continual great Fire from the City, and that on the 14th the Duke of Wharton Aid de Camp to Count de las Torres, and Don Juan Marisi were wounded. 'Tis said that two Algerine and three Moorish Ships have put in at Gibraltar.

Hambourg, June 6. They write from Dantzick, that notwithstanding the Duke of Mecklenbourg has received back the Courier he had dispatched to the Court of Vienna, we do not see that Prince makes any yet any Preparations either to return to his Dominions, or to make a Journey to the Imperial Court, as it was given out he would. The Swedish Commissary in that City has received new Orders from his Court to buy up a great Quantity of Corn, and to get it transported to Finland and Stockholm. Letters from Riga give an Account of repeated Orders Prince Menzikoff has sent to the Troops quartered thereabouts, and in Courland, to suspend their March till further Orders; that M. Bruce, Master-General of the Ordnance, who had viewed the Fortifications and the Artillery of Smolensko, Riga, and other Russian strong Places, returned suddenly to Petersbourg, upon receiving a Courier from thence; and that the Commander of the Gallies which are in the River of Dunamund, and whereupon they had actually embarked a great Number of Chevaux de Frise, had received Orders to range the said Gallies and other Vessels under the Fort of Dunamund till he hears further. We have been informed by several Expresses who passed through this City, that the Czarina died at Petersbourg the 17th of May, aged 38 Years and near Four Months, being born the 27th of January 1689. In 1711, Peter Alexiowitz, Czar of Muscovy, declared his Marriage with that Princess, and left her the Sovereignty of all his Dominions at his Death, which happened the 8th of February, 1725. She leaves behind her two Princesses, whereof the eldest Anne Petrowna, now 19 Years old, has married Charles Frederick Duke of Holstein Gottorp, and the youngest Elizabeth Petrowna is 13 Years of Age. The young Prince Peter Alexiowitz, born the 22d of October 1715, succeeds the Czarina in all her Dominions; he is Grandson to the late Czar, and Son to Prince Alexis Petrowitz, who died the 26th of June 1718, and to Princess Charlotte Christina Sophia of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel, who died in Childbed at Petersbourg the first of November 1715. She was Sister to the present Empress, and Daughter to Lewis Rudolph Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel and to Christina Louisa d'Oettingen.

Vienna, May 31. The Duke de Bournonville, the Spanish Ambassadour at this Court, celebrated here Yesterday the Anniversary of the Prince of Asturias's Birth-Day by a splendid Feast he gave to the foreign Ministers and other Persons of Distinction. We are impatient to know whether the 12 Preliminary Articles for the holding a Congress, to which his Imperial Majesty has consented, have been accepted and signed at Paris by the Ministers Plenipotentiary of the Allies of Hanover, in which case we do not at all doubt but they will be also ratified by the King of Spain, and that in Consequence thereof his Catholick Majesty will raise the Siege of Gibraltar. Mean while a Courier has been sent to Count de Harrach, our Ambassadour at Turin, with the News of the Emperour's having having consented to the said Preliminaries, in order to notify the same to that Court. 'Tis said the Elector Palatine has wrote a Letter to the Emperour, entreating him not to conclude any Thing relating to the Succession to the Dutchies of Juliers and Bergen, in favour of the King of Prussia. The Czarina's Sickness is variously talked of, and we hear that some considerable Persons who were constantly about her, have been arrested, with two Cooks. The Duke of Liria, designed Ambassadour for that Court, is still here. The marching of the Imperial Troops designed for Italy and the Austrian Netherlands, has been suspended, but they will be still kept on Foot as well as all the other Imperial Forces, till the Success of the Congress be known.

Hanover, June 6. The Tents designed for the King and his Train, had the War broke out, stand pitch'd behind the Menagerie of Herrenhausen. There are among them three or four very rich ones, which were taken about 40 Years ago from the Turks by a Body of our Troops commanded by His Britannick Majesty. We are very busy in getting the Green-House finished before the King our Sovereign's Arrival. The 1st Instant they began to pay the Troops on the same Foot as if they were actually in the Field, but this will not continue since the Emperour has accepted the Preliminary Articles for holding a Congress. Prince Frederick has ordered great Preparations for celebrating the King his Grandfather's Birthday, who enters the Day after To-morrow into the 68th Year of his Age. On Sunday last passed through this Place an Express for London from M. Dubourgay, the British Minister at Berlin: By this Courier our Regency has been informed of the Decease of the Czarina. Some Letters from Stettin in Pomerania import, that the Troops the Czarina had engaged to furnish the Emperour had already begun their March towards Germany, with Orders to force a Passage through the King of Prussia's Dominions in case of Refusal. But that Prince's Death has no Doubt put a Stop to it.
